

Abundance Ritual for the Waning Moon

Opening:

Create a sacred space by cleansing the area with a smudge stick or burning incense. Light a candle or lantern to symbolize Hecate's presence and set it at the center of your ritual space.

Take a moment to ground yourself and connect with the energy of the waning gibbous moon and Hecate. Close your eyes, breathe deeply, and visualize a gentle silver light enveloping you.

Supplies:

- A representation of Hecate, such as a statue, image, or symbol.
- A small cauldron or fireproof bowl.
- A silver or white candle.
- Paper and a pen.
- Abundance herbs or spices, such as cinnamon, bay leaves, or cloves.
- A small pouch or container.

Ritual Steps:

Stand before your sacred space and light the silver or white candle, invoking Hecate by saying:

"Goddess Hecate, powerful and wise, I call upon you under the waning moon's skies. Grant me abundance and prosperity, As I embark on this magickal journey."

Take a moment to connect with the energy of the waning gibbous moon and Hecate. Feel the lunar light and her presence surrounding you.

Write down your intention for abundance and prosperity on the piece of paper. Be specific and concise. For example, "I attract financial abundance and growth opportunities."

Fold the paper neatly and place it in the cauldron or fireproof bowl. Light it with the candle flame and let it burn completely, visualizing your intention manifesting.

Sprinkle the abundance herbs or spices into the cauldron, focusing on the scent and energy they emit. Feel their essence infusing the ritual space with prosperity.

Hold your hands over the cauldron and repeat the following affirmation three times: "Under the waning gibbous moon's blessed light, I attract abundance, day and night. With Hecate's guidance, my path is clear; prosperity and wealth now draw near."

Allow the cauldron to cool down, and collect the ashes once it's safe to touch. Place them in the small pouch or container to symbolize your released energy.

Closing:

Express your gratitude to Hecate for her presence and assistance in your abundance spell. Thank her for her guidance and support.

Extinguish the candle and take a moment to ground yourself, allowing the energy to settle and integrate.

Close the ritual by saying: "With gratitude and love, I release this spell, May the energy sent, work for my highest good and dwell. As the waning moon fades and the cycle completes, Abundance flows to me, fulfilling all my needs."

Store the pouch or container with the ashes in a safe place, or carry it as a reminder of your desire for abundance.

Remember, the power of the ritual lies within your intention and connection with Hecate. Feel free to adapt this ritual to suit your personal beliefs and preferences.
